INTERNET SITE CHANGES

The Bankruptcy Court's Internet site, www.insb.uscourts.gov, has been changed. Forms and instructions, both national and local, have been gathered in one place. Outdated and incorrect material has been removed. Please take a few moments and review the site to become familiar with the new locations of some items.

If resources permit, during the next year the site will be redesigned and further improved. Your assistance with our efforts to maintain current and accurate information is appreciated. Should you ever discover an error or have a suggestion about placement of an item on the site, please e-mail our Helpdesk at helpdesk@insb.uscourts.gov.
